

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission(FCC).

The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If successful, anybody that I currently have a business relationship with (e.g., bank, credit card company, long distance carrier)will be able to call me as often as they want.

I oppose this proposed weakening of Indiana laws. As a resident of Indiana, I believe we should have to right to enforce our State "No Call" laws to businesses who choose to do business with Indiana residents.
